To
The General Secretary
Communist Party of India.
Ajay Bhawan, New Delhi.

Dear Comrade Raja,

I personally and on behalf of the Central Committee of the Revolutionary Socialist party beg sincere apology for failing to attend the 24th Party Congress of the CPI being held at Vijaywada. The Central Committee of our party extend warmest greetings to all the respected delegates attending this historic occasion. We also wish your Party Congress a grand success and be of significant worth in advancing the cause of the toiling peoples the world over in general and that of India in particular,

No doubt, India is affront to the severest onslaughts perpetrated on the common millions by the aggressive neo liberal capitalism. The far right political forces are shamelessly subserving the dreaded objectives of the ruling echelons. The Bharatiya Janta Party and its cohorts are all out to advance the ill conceived motive of profit maximization of only a handful filthily rich of India and the international concomitant fraternity. The unprecedented crises ridden capitalism is all out the curb and demolish the basic minimum democratic rights of the vast masses of the downtrodden people.

The present rulers are desperately working to facilitate the inhuman objectives of the national and international capitalists by dividing the common people on the basis of caste, creed religion, region and language. The dreaded far right political forces under the leadership of the obnoxious & fascist Sangh Parivar. They are systematically spewing venom against the minorities to establish a theocratic state. The rulers are all out to fulfill their cherished desire of subverting India or Bharat into the Hindi-Hindu and Hindusthan. In course they are tampering and or distorting the basic tenets of our constitution. The propertied majority are being convinced to toe this pernicious move to the detriment of the vast majority of our populace who are languishing in abject poverty, destitution, joblessness and sky rocketing rise in the prices of all essential commodities. The history and heritage of our great country is being ruthlessly changed or distorted. The economic ills are mercilessly dumped on the majority. These entire misdemeanors are being conspicuously suppressed by communally dividing the common. The respected delegates are more than aware about the developments.

The principal consideration before us is how to change the present. To our humble consideration the only respite is to advance the mass democratic movement in a nonconformist manner. The unity of the Lefts must be augmented without any illusion about the progressive role of the Indian bourgeoisie. Gone are those days of sweet dreams what so ever. The Revolutionary Socialist Party is of firm opinion that the present will change by conscious activism of the masses of the deprived and fleeced common people in right perspective.

We once again wish your 24th Party Congress a meaningful success that will further consolidate the unity and struggle of ours.

With warmest greetings and best wishes,

Yours Comradely,

Manoj Bhattacharya.

General Secretary,
